

2008 STAR Post-Test Workshop Quiz

1. Which comparison is valid for 2008 STAR results?
 - A. Math scale scores for fourth grade 2007 with math scale scores for fifth grade 2008
 - B. Math scale scores for fifth grade 2007 with math scale scores for fifth grade 2008
 - C. Math scale scores for fifth grade 2008 with science scale scores for fifth grade 2008
 - D. Chris Rodriguez's 2007 math scale scores with Chris Rodriguez's 2008 math scale scores

2. What is a scale score?
 - A. Percent correct of all questions
 - B. Mean percent correct for all questions
 - C. An adjustment of this year's and last year's raw score to show changes
 - D. An adjustment of the raw score to account for differences in difficulty

3. If you want to see how economically disadvantaged Hispanics performed on CSTs in your district, where would you look?
 - A. Subgroup Summary: Ethnicity for Economic Status
 - B. Subgroup Summary: Ethnicity/Hispanic
 - C. Web Reporting: CST/Ethnicity/Hispanic
 - D. Student report of each Spanish-speaking student

4. For 2008, how are student scores reported for CMA and STS?
 - A. Scale score
 - B. Performance level
 - C. Percent correct
 - D. They're not reported

5. What do the bars represent on Student Report content areas and on Teacher Report reporting clusters?
 - A. Percent correct statewide
 - B. Potential range of scores of students
 - C. Percent correct for similar students in the district
 - D. Average percent correct range for students statewide who scored proficient on the total test