

2009 STAR Post-Test Workshop Quiz

1. Which of these tests had scale scores reported for the first time in 2009?
 - A. CST for World History
 - B. CAPA for ELA and Math
 - C. CMA for grades three through five
 - D. STS for Algebra and Geometry
2. What is a scale score?
 - A. Percent correct of all questions
 - B. Mean percent correct of all questions
 - C. An adjustment of this year's and last year's raw score to show changes
 - D. An adjustment of the raw score to account for differences in difficulty
3. Which is the best comparison for CST scores of students within a middle school?
 - A. 2008 mean ELA scale scores of a cohort of grade seven students with 2009 ELA scale scores of a cohort of the same students in grade eight
 - B. 2008 mean ELA scale scores for grade eight students with 2009 mean ELA scale scores for grade eight students
 - C. 2008 mean ELA percent correct scores with 2009 ELA percent correct scores of a cohort of the same students in grade eight
 - D. 2008 mean ELA percent correct scores for grade eight students with 2009 mean ELA percent correct for grade eight students
4. Which subgroup report can only be accessed from the Internet?
 - A. Parent Education Level
 - B. CAPA by individual disability status
 - C. Ethnicity for Economic Status
 - D. English Proficiency
5. Which is the best comparison of cluster scores for a single student? Compare...
 - A. To proficient students statewide
 - B. One cluster to another, same year
 - C. The same cluster to the same cluster, different years
 - D. To the average percent correct of all students in a class
6. Which report shows the percent of all students who scored advanced and proficient in a particular CST subject and grade this year and last year on the same page?
 - A. SML Summary
 - B. Teacher Report
 - C. Student Master List
 - D. CST Summary on the Internet