

2011 STAR Post-Test Workshop Quiz

1. Which of these tests had scale scores reported for the first time in 2011?
 - A. CST for World History
 - B. CAPA for Science
 - C. CMA for Algebra I
 - D. CMA for Geometry

2. What is a scale score?
 - A. Percent correct of all questions
 - B. Mean percent correct of all questions
 - C. An adjustment of this year's and last year's raw score to show changes
 - D. An adjustment of the raw score to account for differences in difficulty

3. What is the best comparison for CST scores of students within a middle school?
 - A. 2010 mean scale scores for ELA of a cohort of grade 7 students with 2011 scale scores for ELA of the same students in grade 8
 - B. 2010 mean scale scores for ELA for grade 8 students with 2011 mean scale scores for ELA for grade 8 students
 - C. 2010 mean percent correct scores for ELA with 2011 percent correct scores for ELA for the same students in grade 8
 - D. 2010 mean percent correct scores for ELA for grade 8 students with 2011 mean percent correct for ELA for grade 8 students

4. Which is the best comparison of cluster scores for a single student? Compare...
 - A. To proficient students statewide
 - B. One cluster to another, same year
 - C. The same cluster to the same cluster, different years
 - D. To the average percent correct of all students in a class

5. Which subgroup report can only be accessed from the Internet?
 - A. Parent Education Level
 - B. CAPA by individual disability status
 - C. Ethnicity for Economic Status
 - D. English Proficiency