

Standardized Testing and Reporting Program 2009 Video Updates for the 2010 Administration

Site Coordinator Segments

Standardized Testing and Reporting (STAR) Program videos will NOT be revised or reproduced for the 2010 STAR administration. You are encouraged to use the videos produced in 2009 for training. Use this document to identify which information in the videos has been updated. Information that is a 2010 Program Update is new this year. Information that is Not Applicable in 2010 is in the video but no longer applies to the STAR Program.

Refer to the 2010 STAR District and Test Site Coordinator Manual for detailed information about steps to take before, during, and after administering tests within the STAR Program at your site.

General

Writing Tests

2010 Program Update	California Standards Tests (CSTs) and California Modified Assessment (CMA) writing tests are available for grade seven ONLY .
Not Applicable in 2010	Disregard references to the grade four writing tests, which will not be administered in 2010.

Audio CDs

2010 Program Update	Audio CDs are no longer available.
Not Applicable in 2010	Disregard “Non-scorables also include...CD formats.”

STAR Multiple-Choice Answer Documents

Although multiple-choice answer documents are not specifically mentioned in the 2009 video segments, the following changes have been made on multiple-choice answer documents. These updates are included in STAR Program documentation such as the Directions for Administration (DFA) and the District and Test Site Coordinator Manual.

Race and Ethnicity, Sections 8 and 9

	Ethnicity/Race has two parts.
2010 Program Update	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Section 8: Is the student Hispanic? Yes or No Make sure that students mark only one circle in Section 8.• Section 9: Mark one or more. Make sure students mark at least one circle in Section 9.
Not Applicable in 2010	“Mark primary and secondary ethnicities.”

Special Programs, Section 17

2010 Program Update	Marking “Indian Education” participation is no longer required on answer documents.
Not Applicable in 2010	Indian Education appeared on the answer documents.

Accommodations and Modifications, Section A3

2010 Program Update	The “All Tests” column and “T” for use of audio CDs has been removed. Accommodations and modifications in Section A3 must be marked for each individual test taken.
Not Applicable in 2010	The “All Tests” column appeared on the answer document.

Version Numbers

2010 Program Update	The version number box for grade-level tests is now located on the right side on the second and third pages of the answer documents. This example is from the grade four CST/CMA answer document:
----------------------------	---

Not Applicable in 2010	The version number box for grade-level tests was on the front of the answer document.
-------------------------------	---

California Standards Test (CST) ElementaryAudio CDs

2010 Program Update	Audio CDs are no longer available.
Not Applicable in 2010	Disregard “Among the CST materials sent to elementary schools are... audio CDs.”

CST Middle SchoolAudio CDs

2010 Program Update	Audio CDs are no longer available.
Not Applicable in 2010	Disregard “Among the CST materials sent to middle schools are... audio CDs.”

Answer Documents

2010 Program Update	The CST answer document is separate from the California Modified Assessment (CMA) answer document for grade eight.
Not Applicable in 2010	Although not mentioned in the video, in 2009, CST and the CMA answer circles were on the same grade eight answer document.

Writing Tests

Grades Administered Writing Tests

2010 Program Update	Only students in grade seven take the CST or CMA writing test.
Not Applicable in 2010	Disregard references to the grade four writing tests, which will not be administered in 2010.

Dates of Writing Tests

2010 Program Update	Writing test dates are March 2 (makeup March 3) and May 4 (makeup May 5). Arrival dates of March writing test materials to sites are between February 22 and February 25. School sites must return writing materials to their districts by March 4 or (if testing in May) May 6.
Not Applicable in 2010	Disregard dates of writing tests mentioned in the 2009 video.

Distinguish CST from CMA Writing Tests

2010 Program Update	To avoid giving a CST writing test booklet or test directions to a student taking the CMA multiple-choice test for English-Language Arts (ELA), notice the block letters on the cover near the bottom of the CST writing response booklet and corresponding Directions for Administration (DFA) . Reverse block letters (white letters on a dark box) are displayed on the CMA writing response booklet and DFA .
Not Applicable in 2010	Although not mentioned in the video, no additional indication of the test was given in large font type on document covers.

Audio CDs

2010 Program Update	Audio CDs are no longer available.
Not Applicable in 2010	Disregard "Materials include... audio CDs."

CST High School

Who Takes CSTs?

2010 Program Update	All students in grades nine through eleven except those taking the California Alternate Performance Assessment (CAPA) or the California Modified Assessment (CMA) are required to take California Standards Tests (CSTs).
Not Applicable in 2010	The CMA was not mentioned in 2009.

Early Assessment Program (EAP) Essay Dates

2010 Program Update	EAP Essay testing is from March 2 through March 31.
Not Applicable in 2010	In 2009, EAP Essay testing began on March 3.

CSU and CCC circle on Grade Eleven Multiple-Choice Tests

2010 Program Update	Students taking the EAP acknowledge that they are voluntarily participating in that test by answering the EAP augmentation questions. Students' CST and EAP results will be provided to the California State University and/or California Community Colleges if they mark the "CSU", "CCC", and/or "CSU and CCC" circles on their answer documents.
Not Applicable in 2010	Disregard "Students completing the EAP questions may fill in a circle on their answer documents requesting that ETS forward their test results to the CSU System." This statement is incomplete.

Audio CDs

2010 Program Update	Audio CDs are no longer available.
Not Applicable in 2010	Disregard "Among materials sent to high schools are... audio CDs."

CMA ElementaryNo Writing Tests

2010 Program Update	Grade four writing test will not be offered in 2010.
Not Applicable in 2010	Disregard references to the grade four writing tests, which will not be administered in 2010.

Use of Calculator

2010 Program Update	Use of a calculator is an acceptable accommodation only for grade five mathematics.
Not Applicable in 2010	Although not mentioned in the video, in the past, calculators were an allowable accommodation for the mathematics and science tests in other grades.

CMA Middle School

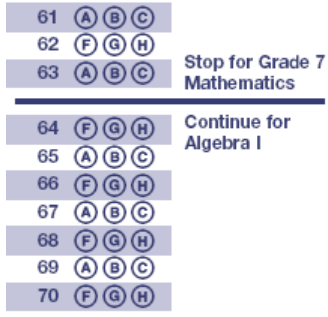

Grade Eight CMA Answer Document Separate from the CST Answer Document

2010 Program Update	The CMA grade eight answer document is separate from the CST grade eight answer document. A CST answer document must be returned for all students. The grade eight answer documents have all the demographic fields. On the CST answer document box 7c, “Assessed with CMA,” must be marked for each of the CMA test(s) taken.
Not Applicable in 2010	Disregard “Answer documents will be packed with CST materials since answer circles for both CST and CMA are on the same answer documents.”

CMA Algebra I Availability for Grades Seven and Eight

2010 Program Update	A separate test booklet containing the CMA for Algebra I is available to students in grades seven and eight whose individual education plan (IEP) states that they should take CMA for Algebra I and who completed an Algebra I course during the 2009 summer session or will complete an Algebra I course by the end of the 2010 school year. Eligible students in grade eight are required to take either the CMA for Algebra I, the CST for General Mathematics, or another CST end-of-course assessment.
Not Applicable in 2010	Although not specifically mentioned, in 2009 only the grade-level mathematics test was available for students in grade seven. Students in grade eight were required to take a mathematics CST.

CMA for Mathematics (Grade 7) and CMA for Algebra I Differ in the Number of Questions

2010 Program Update	Seventy answer circles are available in the mathematics section of the CST/CMA answer document for grade seven and the CMA answer document for grade eight. The CMA for Algebra I has 70 questions but the CMA for grade seven mathematics has 63 questions. A line on the answer document indicates where to stop for the grade seven mathematics test.	 The diagram shows a vertical list of answer bubbles for questions 61 through 70. Questions 61, 62, and 63 are grouped under the heading "Stop for Grade 7 Mathematics". Questions 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, and 70 are grouped under the heading "Continue for Algebra I". Each question number is followed by three bubbles labeled A, B, and C (for 61-63) or F, G, and H (for 64-70).
Not Applicable in 2010	Although not specifically mentioned, the 2009 grade seven CMA answer document for mathematics had 63 answer bubbles.

CMA High School

The CMA for ELA in grade nine, CMA for Life Science in grade ten, and the CMA for Algebra I assessments will be offered for the first time in 2010.

CMA Answer Documents Separate from CST Answer Documents, BUT A CST Answer Document Must be Returned for All High School Students

*2010 Program
Update*

CMA answer documents are separate from CST answer documents for grades nine, ten, and eleven. Each answer document has all the demographic fields. Districts are required to return a CST answer document for all students. On the CST answer document box 7c, “Assessed with CMA”, must be marked for each of the CMA tests taken.

Directions for Administration (DFA)

*2010 Program
Update*

A single DFA is used for the CMA in grades nine through eleven.

Special Versions

*2010 Program
Update*

The CMA test booklets for the CMA for ELA (Grade 9), CMA for Life Science (Grade 10), and CMA for Algebra I are available in large print but not braille.

Grade Nine

*2010 Program
Update*

The grade nine CMA test booklet contains only the grade nine ELA test. The CMA for Algebra I test is available in a separate test booklet. The CMA grade nine answer document includes answer sections for both CMA tests available at this grade. If the student took mathematics, science, and/or world history courses for which there is an end-of-course CST, the student must take the tests for those subjects with the appropriate CST test booklet and answer document. Remember to complete box 7c on the CST answer document for each of the CMA test(s) taken.

Grade Ten

*2010 Program
Update*

The grade ten CMA test booklet contains the grade ten Life Science test only. The CMA for Algebra I test is available in a separate test booklet. The CMA grade ten answer document includes answer sections for both CMA tests available at this grade. All grade ten students must also take the CST for ELA using the CST grade ten test booklet and answer document. If the student took mathematics, science, and/or world history courses for which there is an end-of-course CST, the student must take the tests for those subjects with the appropriate CST test booklet and answer document. Remember to complete box 7c on the CST answer document for each of the CMA test(s) taken.

Grade Eleven*2010 Program
Update*

The grade eleven CMA answer document includes answer sections for Algebra I only. The CMA for Algebra I test is available in a separate test booklet. Students in grade eleven must also take the CST for ELA and CST for U.S. History using the CST grade eleven test booklet and answer document. If the student took mathematics, science, and/or world history courses for which there is an end-of-course CST, the student must take the tests for those subjects with the appropriate CST test booklet and answer document. Remember to complete box 7c on the CST answer document for each of the CMA test(s) taken.
